With a Master Degree in Communication Design I have been developing projects of Brand Design, Web Design and Editorial Design over the last 20 years.

As a responsible and proactive professional, I am always seeking to evolve and grow in my career. I have developed creative and effective solutions for various projects and clients and am comfortable working in a team, always open to new ideas and perspectives. I started my professional career linked to Pharmaceutical Marketing/Design, later moving to more generalist communication (Brand, Print and Web Design) and finally three years working exclusively with Editorial Design. For the last eight years I have been working as a freelancer, having my own clients and collaborating with several Design studios.

I am excited to bring my experience and skills to this project and work together to achieve exceptional and impactful results.

EXPERIENCE

2015 – Today

Designer Freelancer, developing projects for national and international brands such as IPOPI – International Patient Organisation for Primary Immunodeficiencies, Leya, Start-Up Angola, Grupo Entrepasto, among others.

2012 – 0015

Designer at Alive Word Comunicação (Portuguese Publisher) where I was responsible for the design of three magazines related to enology and gastronomy.

2009 – 2012

Designer at Quanto70 Designers, a design studio specialized in creating brands and visual identities.

2004 – 2009

Designer at studio Círculo Médico, a Portuguese communication agency specialized in Pharmaceutical Marketing/Design.

I started as a Junior Designer, later moving to Senior Designer where I had the pleasure of working with big brands like Glaxosmithkline, Bayer Pharmaceuticals and Menarini.
